

Elisa D. Marchetti (Lisa)

Author * Speaker * Advocate

Lisa will encourage you through her unique writing style of storytelling and personification. She interweaves scripture and God's promises and will inspire you through her authentic and vulnerable experiences.

Lisa is a gifted speaker who passionately supports multiple non-profit Childhood Cancer organizations.

She will keep advocating for research and better therapies, so no parent has to hear the words, "Your child has cancer."

Victory is Ahead shares the rawness of both desperate grief and unfailing faith. Lisa reminds her readers, "You are not alone in your trials. God will never let go of you, your child, or your family even through...Cancer."

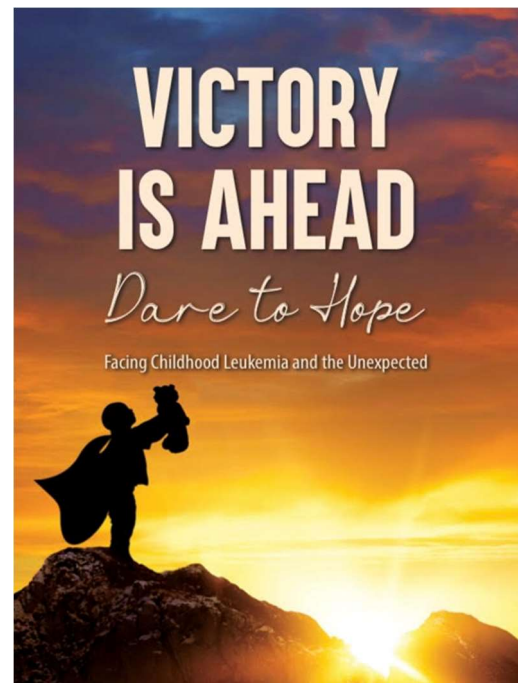

This is a story of hope in the darkness.

Grab your tissues and prepare your heart to be encouraged! Victory is Ahead, is a faith-filled, heart-felt invitation to dare to hope during uncertainty, during sorrow, and during pain while always pointing up.

Elisa has captured the essence of the engagement, fight and triumph over the disease and the spiritual battle. I once again have deep joy in my heart and thank God for past, current, and future victories.
